Color Day

The idea of a “color day” is very beneficial because your child is able to learn about a color and then transfer the skill across settings.

How To Play

Pick a color and then make it a “(name of color) day.” In the morning, tell your child what color is the “color of the day.” Then, throughout the day, find this color and discuss it with your child.

Example: Blue Day

- Find blue on your clothes
- Point out the blue sky
- Get excited when you see a blue car in the street
- Find all the blue things in a book
- Etc...

Language Skills Targeted

- Colors
